HERE LIES MAN'S ANCIENT ENEMY, BUT NOT HIS FUTURE. THE UNLOVED CUBS, SEWING.

BEING "TUNNY."
 We attempt every day in a secular way To knock out a ball or ditty; O we strive to amuse, but at times have the blues
 And feel for ourself a great pity.

For though some days our verse might be just a bit worse,
 That fact doesn't make us more cheerful And it doesn't inspire us with any desire To dish out again a new effort.

But we heave a deep sigh and we earnestly try Each day to perform our full duty With our gay, rippling rhymes, which, though maybe, will never take a prize for their beauty.

Goah! The life of a bard is most certainly hard—
 The poor fish must try to be funny.
 "Is that such a hard task?" you may possibly ask—
 It is—when one does it for money!

ONE "Bunk" Jones, a sturdy citizen of Murray, Kentucky, is head of a family that for increasing the population makes the census bureau's 10-year comparisons look like race suicide statistics. Within three hours of their evening his wife presented him with triplets, a daughter and a cleft second with twins and another daughter added a girl to the baby shower. A triple, a double and a single. A home run is all that's lacking.

Yes, Yes! But what was the "Budden Shock"?
 (From the Prospect Journal-Standard).
 Joliet, Ill., Sept. 1.—Unable to speak for two years, Mrs. L. Dano of this city found her speech suddenly restored by a sudden shock. She was knocked down by a bicycle in 1918 and has been dumb since. Surgeons were unable to produce a response from the nerve and muscular systems which react upon the vocal cords and the paralysis appeared to be permanent. The restoration of the powers of speech came as suddenly as it left her. Her voice is almost as clear as before although a trifle husky as a result of the long disuse.

Comparisons, We Take It, Would Be Odious.
 (From The Argus).
 "The water circus was a success from every point," Mr. Gordon said this morning, "as this was the first outdoor water circus held by the association."

"THEY have changed Lincoln's aphorism," said Mr. Moore, "from 'a government by the people' to 'government buy the people.'"

OUR editorial colleague speaks of "Mitch Palmer's department of alleged justice." Poor old Justice! if only she weren't blind!

BUGS BAYER said it better several days ago:
 "Harding is for the people, of the people and by the people."

(The Legal Number Being "Over 21.") (From the Seaton, Ill., Independent).
 Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Graham entertained a number of relatives and friends Saturday evening in honor of their sister-in-law, Mrs. J. K. Pollock's birthday. A birthday cake with the legal number of candles was a part of the dainty refreshments served.

TAKE IT from our delirious parent sheet, "nearly one thousand women have come to the city with their wives and fathers" to attend the convalescence. "Too bad," remarks E. F., "their husbands couldn't come."

THE fifth assails us that we shall have to furnish a fair life for our thin limerick and the lady of Champagne. Our usual, alert sculptors do not appear able to evolve a good last line.

ONE county list received at the census bureau, Washington, D. C., shows among a number of Indian names that of Emma Two Belly, Henry Pretty on Top and Shows As She Goes.
 Connect your own giggle.

THE knights put on a lovely little party on the good ship Capitol yesterday eve.
 WB trust the new grand warden didn't Rock the boat. R. E. M.G.

HEALTH TALKS BY WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

Attention! Nervous Work.
 A Cigarette is a most notorious unreliable and inefficient, therefore many shrewd employees will not have him around the place.

Accurate physiological and psychological measurements of a number of college students made a few years ago by Dr. Bash of Vermont, clearly proved that the immediate effect of a smoke upon a young man not accustomed to smoking or one habituated is not at all what could be called stimulation. It is rather a dose of depression. The effect on the brain and nervous system is inhibition. The young man's response to ordinary demands becomes from ten to twenty-five per cent slower after a smoke than it is when he is not under the influence of tobacco.

That amounts to a narcotic influence, and of course we know that tobacco, like alcohol, is narcotic and depressant from first to last, although these drugs are popularly termed "stimulants."

The earlier a boy begins using tobacco, the less inclination does he show for participation in wholesome, mainly athletic, life. The confirmed cigarette smoker, pipe or cigar fiend—it is immaterial how the tobacco is taken—naturally shuns such participation because his drug habit fits him for successfully competing with his fellows and shame keeps him out of the game.

Once in a while a youth seems to attain a certain degree of success in athletics in spite of his tobacco habit, but never anything extraordinary or phenomenal. If such a youth could be persuaded to free himself from the drug, his possibilities would be greatly enlarged, for such success as he has managed to attain with only 75 to 90 per cent efficiency would certainly not suffer a decline if the young man could enter contests 100 per cent efficient.

This and other forms of so-called stimulation are resorted to as a substitute for muscular exertion or work. Be it golf, tennis, or athletic work or just healthful recreation, the human body craves it and must have it or some substitute. You can fool the body more or less with a substitute, but you can't play such tricks on yourself very long without serious injury to your health. Muscles are strung on the frame to do work, and they will do it or they will pay.

I am receiving a lot of anti-tobacco tracts from a lot of salaried reformers who wish to enlist my aid for the "cause." If the people who furnish the funds to hire these professional crusaders would spend the money rather to provide adequate playgrounds, gymnasiums and swimming pools for the young
